Bier Buried in Flowers

Great Cortege Moves Slowly to Oak Grove, where Coffin Awaits Final
Rest

In the palatial mansion only just completed friends and business associates of William W. Cargill this afternoon paid their last tribute to La Crosse's leading citizen who was regarded in life by all as a kind, philanthropic benefactor and a genius of rare optimism and generosity. The magnificent home was heavy with the odor of beautiful flowers, which banked the bier and almost hid the coffin from view. Through the darkened rooms this morning long lines of sorrowing friends passed to offer condolences and pay their last tribute to the founder and builder of the immense business interests which are known in many states.

The Flowers
Flowers came pouring into the city from the many employees in the south and the west and from those whom his benefactions had helped. Some of the principal pieces were:

A large wreath of roses and chrysanthemums from the employees at Duluth, Minn.

Palms and chrysanthemums from the employees at Pine Bluff, Ark.

A large and beautiful broken wheel of green and roses from the directors of the Y. M. C. A.

From the Memorial Methodist church at Janesville came a large cross of roses.

The employees at Conrad, Mont., sent a large broken pillar of red roses and chrysanthemums.

A long set piece came from the employees of the La Crosse & South-eastern road.

The Men's League of the Presbyterian church sent a large spray of white and yellow chrysanthemums.

The officers of the Green Bay & Western railroad sent a piece of red and pink roses.

From Frontier lodge came a large set piece of white and pink American beauty roses.

The Masonic lodges of Valier and Conrad, Mont., paid their respects with a large floral offering consisting of a magnolia wreath and a sheaf of wheat.

The employees of the La Crosse street railway company, a spray of red roses and the Western railway a large column of roses.

The elders and the trustees of the Presbyterian church sent a large and beautiful set piece.

Simple funeral services were held at the home this afternoon at 2:30, Rev. D. C. Jones, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, where Mr. Cargill was a member, delivering the eulogy. There was no music and the service was made impressive by its simplicity. Rev. Jones' tribute was an appreciative review of the life work of the man and a word for his many kindnesses and charities showed unflinchingly where kindness and charity might do the greatest good.

Members of the La Crosse board of trade attended the services in a body and the home and grounds were filled with business friends and associates of Mr. Cargill. A great cortege followed the body to its final resting place in Oak Grove.

The Pallbearers
The honorary pallbearers were: Capt. I. H. Moulton, S. Y. Hyde, Col. G. M. Woodward, N. D. Allen, J. S. Medary, George W. Burton, Frank P. Hixon and Henry Gund. The active pallbearers were: J. B. Cooper, W. R. Hyde, F. E. Lindahl, Peter Valter, C. J. Northrup and W. B. Guenzius. All of the pallbearers, active and honorary, were selected from those who have been actively associated with Mr. Cargill in his business.

At the cemetery the body was placed in the S. D. Cargill mausoleum, where it will remain until the completion of a magnificent new mausoleum, which is to be built to receive it.

During the funeral hour this afternoon the banks, court sessions, the business colleges and many places

JONES' EULOGY OF MR. CARGILL

Presbyterian Minister Pays High Tribute to the Worth of the Late
Citizen

Rev. D. C. Jones, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of which Mr. Cargill was a member, this afternoon delivered the following eulogy at the funeral service:

The very noble and spontaneous tributes paid our departed brother by so many prominent men in this city and printed in the daily press suggested to me the particular words that might be a fitting text for our brief remarks on this occasion.

The words are found in the Book of Proverbs, chapter 22, verse 1, and read thus: "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches."

And loving favor rather than silver and gold, rendered unto our common language of today, these words read:

"A good name, a well deserved reputation is rather to be chosen, coveted, than great riches, the affectionate regard and good will of our fellowmen, rather than silver and gold."

The word of God knows no conflict between good name and riches. But it does teach us that if we cannot have both and must make our choice that the choice must be in favor of the good name and the good will of our fellowmen that the good name carries with it to all that love truth and righteousness. A man with a good name is of inestimable value to any community. The good name is ever fragrant and potent in its influence for good. But the man with a good name plus riches is of still greater value as he has not only the heart that would do, but the means to carry out the generous impulses of that heart.

A Good Name
A good name is to be coveted because it springs out of and is built upon a good character.

A good name is to character what the fragrance is to the rose the out-going of its own life.

I will mention briefly and very imperfectly, of course, some of the characteristics of Mr. Cargill's life that warrant us in ascribing to him the 'good name' that implies the loving favor—the affectionate regard of his fellowmen.

Entitled to a Great Name
"First I would mention his successful business career. I am not as familiar with this as most people in this vicinity, but we all know that a man who has the energy, the foresight, the ability and the perseverance to build up an enormous business to be ranked as one of the great financiers of the northwest is certainly entitled to a name great and good in the annals of the industrial development of these regions. How varied, numerous and far-reaching were his industrial enterprises we have already read in part in the daily press.

"I hasten on to mention other characteristics which reveal more fully the real secret of his claim upon our affection.

"I will mention second, 'his human sympathies.' Success and riches were not allowed to smother or crush out his sympathetic touch with his fellowmen. Rather than chilling and contracting his naturally generous nature, they became springs that freshened and quickened his nobler impulses.

"He knew what it was to wrestle with difficulties. He knew the price of success. And his heart responded most readily to the call and efforts of everyone whom he believed was willing to go and do likewise. He did not forget the rock of homely toil and honest effort out of which he was hewn. He never lost touch with men in all their varied needs and struggles.

"If all our wealthy men were to

PIRACY EXISTS ON GULF OF MEXICO

Capt. Phelan Reports Depredations and Asks for Government Cutters to Destroy Marauders

GALVESTON, Texas, Oct. 19.—Acting on the complaint of Captain Phelan of the British steamer Rowanmore of Liverpool, Collector of the Port Frank Lee has wired to the government asking for revenue cutters, or armed vessels to suppress piracy in the Gulf of Mexico.

The Rowanmore reported that the piratical crew of a ship flying the Greek flag tried to overhaul her and was repelled only by the free use of clubs and a display of firearms and cutlasses. After being beaten off once, Captain Phelan says, men from the boat put out in a skiff and tried to climb up the anchor chains of the Rowanmore. The craft supposed to be a pirate was said by its captain to be the Lionface. The Rowanmore was stopped by distress signals. The Lionface claimed to be short of food but insisted that she come alongside as the only means of taking the supplies aboard. An offer to send food by boat was refused.

After the clash the Lionface turned and ran toward the Bahamas for shelter.

Several other instances of attempted piracy have recently been reported from the Bahamas.

CZAR MUST PROTECT HEALTH OF SUBJECTS

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 19.—Exasperated by Russian official indifference to the disgusting condition of the Neva river as a source of infection for the whole population of St. Petersburg, representatives of several European countries today made unofficial representations to the Russian court urging improvement and hinting covertly that the rest of the world will have to take a hand in the situation unless conditions are remedied.

FATHER WEDDED TO SON'S FIANCEE

ANDERSON, Ind., Oct. 19.—Ralph Butler, 20, is enroute back to his home in Charlotte, Mich., today, believing that he is the champion when it comes to hard luck.

Young Butler became engaged to Miss Daisy Woods while she was in Charlotte and when she left it was arranged that he would meet her in Anderson, where she had an aunt, and they would be married. When Butler arrived here, however, he found that his father, Daniel S. Butler, had procured a divorce, beat his son here, and married the girl.

Opinions Conflict Over the Advisability of Gypsy Smith's Crusade against Chicago Tenderloin

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—There is a wide conflict of opinion today over the "red light parade" last night, when Gypsy Smith the Romany evangelist, led 12,000 Christians through the levee district in an effort to lead the habits of that district back to the gospel. Smith said today that he regarded the demonstration as "marvelous."

"What, except the power of God could have filled those big houses?" he asked.

Critics of the movement, however, on the other hand, quoted the police and keepers of resorts in the district as declaring that the parade for the resorts had been "the best business proposition ever invented." One woman said early today:

"I have been in this neighborhood more than five years and I never saw anything like the crowds that came to the houses last night. From a business standpoint, I suppose, I should be pleased but I am sorry for the young boys that were attracted to the district—many of them for the first time in their lives."

The police reported that the tenderloin had done "the biggest business in its history."

HISCOX IS STRUCK BY STRAY BULLETS

Struck by a stray shot from the shot gun of a farmer named Simpson, which glanced on the water, Ray Hiscox of the Security Bank narrowly escaped serious injury while duck hunting near Lytle, Sunday. Two of the shot entered Mr. Hiscox's eyes, and his eyelids were pelted by the bullets. Although the injuries were painful, Dr. W. A. Edwards who extracted the shot says that no serious results will follow.

COOK TO DECIDE AMERICAN REQUEST

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 19.—Rector Torp of the university of Copenhagen declared today that at the faculty meeting tomorrow the request of the American National Geographical society that the university waive its claim to the first investigation of Dr. Frederick A. Cook's north pole data, would be refused unless Dr. Cook joined in the request.

WRIGHT RATTLED; MOTOR WAS EMPTY

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 19.—Wilbur Wright got rattled today for the first time in his life. While making a flight with Lieut. Lahm, his motor stopped and he had to glide to the ground. The trouble was with the magneto and he turned it inside out to locate the cause. Then he tackled the engine and took it apart.

Finally a bystander peeped into the gasoline tank. It was empty. Wilbur had forgotten to fill it.

IRVING WILL DRAG OUT OUR MUNICIPAL SKELETONS IN CIVIC BETTERMENT ADDRESS

SMALLPOX SCARE SENSATION HAS STIRRED UP LEWIS VALLEY

DAVIS WOULD NOT HAVE A PHYSICIAN

Fifteen Neighbors Housed with the Diseased Children at Corn Shredding Bee

A smallpox scare following a corn shredding bee in which members of fifteen families were repeatedly exposed to the disease is prevalent in Lewis Valley, where three children and a hired man of Thomas Davis are afflicted with the malady.

Incidentally, the health department was called upon to take action, interference which alone prevented the exposure of more people to the plague.

The Davis family had broken out with the eruptions when the shredders arrived, but as the disease manifested itself in a mild form, Mr. Davis secured no medical attendance. For several days the neighbors were about the place, eating and sleeping in the house with the afflicted members.

Some days later neighbors became alarmed about the nature of the sickness, and protested to Mr. Davis against his failure to call medical assistance. He would not change his mind, however, and thereupon citizens appealed to the health authorities, who sent a physician to the Davis home. The trouble was at once diagnosed as smallpox.

CARRY ALLEN TO MADISON TODAY

MINERAL POINT, Wis., Oct. 19.—Philip Allen, Jr., will be taken to Madison for a hearing on the charge of forgery and embezzlement of $168,000 of the funds of the wrecked First National bank this afternoon. Deputy United States Marshal John Kelley came here last night to get Allen but it was not until late in the afternoon that it was decided Allen could be moved. An automobile was secured and he will be arraigned at Madison this evening before United States District Judge Sanborn or a court commissioner.

PORTOLA FETE ON IN SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 19.—Don Gaspar de Portola, dead more than a hundred years, returned in spirit to San Francisco today across the famous bay which he discovered. A squad of warships—eight of them foreign, escorted this imitation across the bay and marked the opening of San Francisco's Portola celebration.

President Taft's interest has been keen from the beginning and at noon the president's toast to the "new San Francisco" was drunk the world over.

Here it is:

"Since Portola looked through the Golden Gate on the descending sun San Francisco has twice become the imperial city of the Pacific; first by the entering of the pioneers and steady growth into the western metropolis; second, after complete destruction by the greedy flames and, in the face of insurmountable obstacles, by a regeneration so rapid and complete, as to be the wonder of the world. May her future strength be as remarkable as her past and may her civic righteousness and the individual happiness of her citizens keep pace with it."

SUICIDES AT SIDE OF HIS SWEETHEART

HILLSDALE, Mich., Oct. 19.—Eva Wallron, one of the leaders among the younger people in Wheatland township, is prostrated from the shock of seeing the man she had just rejected blow out his brains as he stood in her home.

Avey Hitchcock, 23, of this place, had been repeatedly rejected by the girl. Last evening he said goodbye to his mother and went to the home of Albert Pease, where Miss Wallron lives. Showing her the revolver, he said that if she did not consent to marry him, he would kill himself.

"Only cowards do that," replied the girl.

Without a word he put the revolver to his temple and fired, falling dead at her feet.

MURDERED GIRL'S SKELETON FOUND

Coroner Tries to Find Clues
as to who Killed Young Woman whose Remains
Have Lain for a Year

ISLIP, R. I., Oct. 19.—Coroner Savage today began an inquiry to establish the identity of the young woman whose skeleton, partly charred by fire, was found in the underbrush off the road between Brentwood and Islip yesterday. The body had been there about a year, it is believed, and a bullet hole and 38 caliber bullet in the skull showed she was murdered.

In life the woman had been of slender build and the clothing with the skeleton was of excellent quality and well made. An automobile veil found a few yards from the body bore the name "Schwartz" as did a muffler which was found with it.

Relatives to View Clothes
Relatives of May Smith, a nurse in the Manhattan state hospital, which is near here, who disappeared last spring, have been asked to inspect the clothing to determine if it is that of the girl. A singular circumstance in this connection is that the Smith girl was supposed to be the fiancée of Gustave Schwartz, who is being held in the local jail indicted for murder in the first degree in connection with the killing of Irving Johnson, democratic politician, who was shot in the back while returning from taking a Manhattan hospital nurse to a dance.

After the disappearance of Miss Smith, no special search was made for her as it was rumored that she had gone away to be married. Schwartz was asked by her friends if he knew where she had gone but insisted he did not know.

HOUSER IS FOREMAN OF THE GRAND JURY

Walter Houser, publisher of the Mondow Herald and formerly secretary of state, is in this city, serving as foreman of the federal grand jury. Mr. Houser is a leading factor in the progressive republican movement in this state.

Politicians noted with interest that in charging the grand jury this morning Judge Sanborn expressly advised them that the scope of their proceedings was not limited to matters information concerning which was offered by the district attorney, but that they were at liberty to initiate any investigations they deemed proper.

TAFT NOW AMONG THE ROUGH RIDERS

GREGORY, Texas, Oct. 19.—President Taft awoke at 8 o'clock this morning, dressed leisurely and went down to breakfast at 9 o'clock, ready to enjoy the first of his four days' stay at the ranch of his brother, Chas. P. Taft. The ranch is three miles from Gregory and near Corpus Christi.

That Is Interesting Opportunity to Be Presented at the Theater Next
Thursday Night

BOARD WILL MEET TONIGHT

Final Announcements Include Splendid Free Band Concert by Kreutz-
Andre Military Band

The board of trade will meet tonight to make final arrangements for the address to be delivered at Lt. Crosse theater Thursday evening by the celebrated "Doctor of Municipal Ills," George Blackstone Irving, of Chicago.

The board expects to pack the La Crosse theater with one of the most impressive mass meetings ever held in the city. Public interest has been manifested in the form of donations of everything that usually costs money in connection with an event of the sort. Secretary Uernoehl having today announced the following contributions:

Services of the joint Kreutz-Andre military bands.

Use of La Crosse theater.

Free posting of bills by Oyen Ad Sign company.

Free space in the newspapers for advertising.

Great Concert Given.
The military bands will give a free concert before the lecture, from 7:45 to 8:15. This in itself is certain to be worth the price of admission, which is only 25 cents.

But the lectures of Mr. Irving are conceded to be the greatest that are devoted to the purposes of civic betterment. He is recognized in metropolitan centers as a master of his craft, and halls in large cities seldom are adequate to the audiences he draws.

Will Analyze Us.

Lest it be felt that this lecture is to be the cut and dried appeal to men to build factories, the committee desires special attention called to the fact that Mr. Irving does not follow this method. HE ANALYZES CONDITIONS, DIAGNOSES THE CASE OF EACH CITY AND TELLS WHEREIN IT LACKS THE ESSENTIALS OF PROGRESS.

To Drag Out Skeletons.
Curiosity, if not a more purposeful interest, is expected to impel a large attendance for it will be mighty entertaining to have our municipal deficiencies analyzed by a discriminating outsider who is depended upon to put into words things which, if home people knew them, they would not have the daring to whisper. It will be hot stuff, right from the shoulder, and perhaps the pill will not be sugar-coated.

Communally patriotic, civic pride, the road to civic betterment—these things will be discussed in the speech of Mr. Irving, but the great underlying fact that most concerns La Crosse people is that they and their city are to be pictured as seen by the calculating eyes of one who knows all about cities and who is, not going to be afraid to drag all the municipal skeletons from their closets.

Buttons Are Tickets.
The sale of buttons, which in addition to being souvenirs of the event are to be accepted as tickets of admission, is being arranged for, and the final details will be arranged at the meeting of the board tonight.

ONE MONTH MORE OF RIVER SEASON

The river lights will burn along the shores of the Father of Waters for just about one month more, when they will go out for the winter.

The upper Mississippi maintains its light service until the 15th of November, when the season officially is brought to a close. The number of crafts passing up and down the stream this late in the year is comparatively few, but the government keeps up the light service until the river is on the point of closing with ice.

On the last trip of the government boat Lily up the stream, enough oil was left with the various light tenders along the way to last until the middle of next month.

Work on the Frisco, the mate to the Albatross, which is being built in the yards of the Dubuque Boat and Boiler works, is progressing rapidly, and much of the foundation work will have been completed before the setting in of the winter season. The Frisco will be 305 feet in length, its beam will measure 50 feet and it will be constructed of steel.

The excursion steamer J. S. is at Paducah, Ky., undergoing repairs.

"KONEY" PLAYING AT CHICAGO TODAY

Guarding First Base for All Star Team which Meets Manager Comiskey's White Sox

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Konetchy, who have been visiting in the city for the past two weeks, left last night for Chicago, where "Koney" will join the All-National barnstormers on their trip throughout the west. They opened at Chicago this afternoon. Koney is slated to cover the initial sack on the trip and with Egan, Doyle and Lennox filling out the infield, it seems like a stone wall proposition.

"The trip will take about two months," said Eddie yesterday, "and by that time it will be time for me to go back to St. Louis. We will make our home there. I won't be long before we will be back in the spring training camp."

The major league barnstormers, the All-Nationals and Philadelphia Athletics, who will play in Chicago on Tuesday, enroute to California, arrived there yesterday.

Connie Mack is bringing his Athletics intact, with the exception of Shortstop Barry, who was injured in the last Detroit-Philadelphia series. His place will be filled by George McBride of the Washington club. The squad will line up against the Cubs at the west side park.

The All-Nationals, who will tackle Comiskey's White Sox, are: Egan, Cincinnati, ss; Doyle, New York, 2b; Lennox, Brooklyn, 3b; Bescher, Cincinnati, lf; Konetchy, St. Louis, 1b; Hummel, Brooklyn, rf; Snodgrass, New York, cf; Meyers, New York, c; Curtis of Boston, Marquardt of New York, or Moore of Philadelphia, pitcher.

CELEBRATE VICTORY AT PIRATEVILLE

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 19.—Pittsburg was baseball mad yesterday, the time officially set for the great celebration in honor of the Pittsburgh baseball club, winners of the world's championship.

Traffic along Fifth avenue was abandoned early in the evening, the street car company running cars by other routes. This street, as far as Oakland, where Forbes field is located, was roped off in preparation for the monster parade.

Such a parade was never seen in Pittsburgh before and perhaps not in any other city of the country. Led by Mayor Magee and the members of his cabinet and all the members of the Pittsburgh team, the Fourteenth and Eighteenth regiments of the National guard of Pennsylvania, formed the vanguard of the most unique assemblage that ever traversed the streets of this city.

Forbes field was taxed to its capacity, the great amphitheater being unable to seat the multitude which covered the playing field. Mayor Magee, Congressman James Francis Burke and other prominent citizens of the city were among those who made addresses, each member of the ball club being introduced to the vast crowd and forced to make a remark of some sort.

Charles (Babe) Adams, the pitcher who led his teammates to victory three times during the great series, was the recipient of a great ovation and besides the check as his share of the receipts, was given a purse of over $1,000 as a testimonial of his great work.

If some men ever had any good intentions they must have chloroformed them.

Kidneys Cured by this Simple Treatment.

Get your druggist to mix the following ingredients: One-half ounce fluid extract Buchu, one ounce of compound fluid Balmwort and two ounces of syrup of Sarsaparilla compound. Shake well and take a teaspoonful after each meal and one when retiring. Drink plenty of water, but little of any liquid at meal times.

The great urinary specialist, Gaut, whose single fees range from $500 to $1,000, acknowledges in his latest reports that this simple mixture is most reliable and will cure all but the most complicated and aggravated kidney and bladder affections and rheumatism; therefore, it is well worth trying.

Puffing under the eyes, backache, headache and dizziness, burning of the eyes, blurred vision, extreme nervousness, and insomnia all indicate urinary trouble. Many more symptoms could be named, but the reader will surely recognize them.

WORK AND PAY

It is impossible to conceive any circumstance in life that has not,
on the one hand, its drawbacks or disadvantages, and on the other hand, its compensations.

There is a story of an Irishman who went from "ould Ireland" to London with that ancient dream in his mind that the streets of the great city were paved with gold, or at least that gold could be found in abundance on the streets. He had hardly time to disabuse his mind of the idea when it happened that he picked up a sovereign ($5). He took the coin to a bank to get it changed for silver. The cash teller threw it into the scales, pronounced it short weight and paid him one shilling less than its face called for. It so happened that a day or two later he saw another sovereign lying in the street.
Pat looked at it suspiciously and so-liloquized, "Faith, now, ye can't fool me agin; sure it's meself that will not pick ye up; I lost a shillin' by the last one I found."

There are very few people who would deliberately refuse a quarter because it was not a dollar but there are many who mistake the possession of money as the best, if not the whole, object of service. "If I had money," say they, "I would not work."

Every wise man will endeavor to secure the best return for his work.
Every good workman will seek fair wages and the man of many talents will aim to secure the profit of them.
Money is more than the representative of labor; it is the medium and the expression of worth. But the man who works only for "what there is in it" for him, does not get the most out of it. A capitalist might choose to pay a man daily wages to dig holes and fill them up again with no other object than to keep the man employed. But to a healthy minded man such work is a degradation. To sweep the streets is to "do something" and there is satisfaction, and even dignity, in doing that one thing well and thus earning the wages paid. The man whose only object is to put in the time and collect the pay loses
the best part of the work; he is misusing the sense of achievement. He has nothing to be proud of.

A tailor must have pay for the suit of clothes he makes, but he is a poor tailor who has no pride in the making of a suit. The highest pleasure is in the production.
A healthy man has pleasure in his dinner but if he eats only because he likes it, he is liable to become dyspeptic and he misses the purpose of his eating.

There is an important distinction in this because it stamps the man. It is the difference between the man who eats to live and he who lives to eat.

This distinction is worth much to the young man who is forming character. It is the distinction between life and death—the distinction between a fruit bearer and a fungus.
The soldier is a soldier, the lawyer a lawyer, the doctor a doctor, not by the money they make, but by the achievement and fulfillment of their respective purposes and functions.

Let us demand our pay but let us earn more than we get.

It now appears that Mr. Crane should have cultivated the acquaintance of Mr. Maxim, the man who has just invented the famous "Maxim silencer."

It seems that the open mouth is regarded incompatible with the open door.

The darw monarch from sunny Africa was being shown over an engineering place in Salford by the manager, who, in explaining the working of certain machinery, unfortunately got his coat tails caught in it, and in a moment was being whirled around at so many revolutions per minute. Luckily for the manager, his garments were unequal to the strain of more than a few revolutions, and he was hurled, disheveled and dazed, at the feet of the visitor. That exalted personage roared with laughter and said something to his interpreter.

"Sah," said that functionary to the manager, "his majesty say he am berry pleased with de trick, an' will you please do it agin?"—Sketchy

Now You Need Not Suffer From Catarrh

(From Vienna Abendpost.)

At the recent convention held by the Physicians and Surgeons of Vienna, many present being men well known in the profession, one topic of interest that brought about much discussion was that of catarrh, its rapid increase and results.

Prof. Herman Von Schelt, a well known general practitioner, surprised those present with his experience with the disease, for a disease it is.
He stated that in the past two years he has been able, through the use of a simple drug called vintox, to treat successfully almost every case that came under his care.

It seems that this vintox, according to Prof. Von Schelt, has already found its way to America and can be bought in any drug store.
"Every sufferer of catarrh," says
the doctor, "can readily obtain relief from two ounces of vintox dissolved in a pint of water. Just gargle a little 4 or 5 times a day and pour some in the palm of the hand and snuff it up the nose."

SPOTLIGHTS

"TOYLAND TONIGHT"
One is at a loss to know how to attempt to convey in words any idea of "Babes in Toyland" the brilliant operatic extravaganza which will be presented at the La Crosse theater with the entire production intact just as presented for over a year and a half in New York and one year in Chicago. The delightful music is the work of Victor Herbert which is enough to guarantee the excellence of the offering. The libretto is the work of Glen MacDonough, whose brilliant humor and keen satire is well known to playgoers. And best of all, the superb production was produced by Julian Mitchell, the past master of every art known to stage management. But who shall write an adequate description of "Babes in Toyland?" Before such an attempt can possibly be successful somebody will have to supply the dictionary with an entire new set of adjectives. The old ones won't do.
They have been used too often to describe ordinary entertainment that they would lack significance if applied to this.

As one watches it, he asks himself in wonder where it is all going to end, this conquest of the possibilities for the purpose of the stage. A year or two ago we thought that the limit had been reached, but we were wrong. Advances have continued to be made, though it is incredible that anything can be more splendid and beautiful than, "Babes in Toyland."

George R. Colton to Rule Porto Rico

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The man who will succeed Governor Post at Porto Rico is George R. Colton of the District of Columbia.

Mr. Colton first went to the Philippines as lieutenant colonel of a Nebraska regiment. After that he was made collector of customs at Manila.

When the Santo Domingo question came up he was made collector of customs of Santo Domingo. Afterward he was appointed collector of customs of the Philippines. This office he now holds, having come home on leave of absence at the instance of the bureau of insular affairs to assist in the preparation of the Philippine tariff bill.

Governor Post tendered his resignation a short time ago, but it has not yet been determined when Mr.
Colton's appointment becomes effective.

DON'T MISS THIS STORY

If you were driven to desperation through want, and were prepared to commit suicide, what would you do if you were offered a large salary to do another man's bidding for seven years?

Would you accept the offer?
Would you undertake the task blindly, asking no questions, and be prepared to commit any deed, including murder, which he might outline for you to do?

This is the problem presented to Paul Jarret, "The Deputy Avenger," by the man who snatches him from a suicide's grave. Paul accepts the commission, and, as you may readily imagine, enters upon a career of strange adventure and unusual deeds, performed without a true knowledge of the reason therefore. Numerous complications ensue, and there is an endless chain of exciting scenes before Paul finally frees himself from the unwelcome state of affairs into which his rash promise has plunged him.

The Sentinel will begin the publication of "The Deputy Avenger" on Monday evening, Oct. 13. The story he it known, is a novel from the pen of Hedley Richards, the well known author of adventure. It is pronounced by those who have seen the script to be an unusual promise.

Exclusive rights to the novel have been secured by The Sentinel. It will be published in installments every evening beginning next Monday.

Autumnal Verse
The autumn odor's in the air—
Nay, nay, not that of rotting
leaves,
Nor harvest odors rich and rare,
Nor bonfire odors — which so grieves—
The autumn odor's in the air,
I find it not in open fields,
But indoors where its bliss it yields—
The moth ball odor's everywhere.

Druggists Hoeschler Bros. Assure
Relief With Every 25 Cent
Bottle

Druggists Hoeschler Brothers of this town say that they have found indisputable proof that eczema can be cured not in one or two cases but in scores of cases which they have studied.

They would, of course, not think of making such a recommendation to their neighbors and patrons, were it not that their years and years of success with D. D. D. Prescription enables them to speak of this remedy with confidence. It is a gentle, soothing wash with the mild oil of winter-green as a base. All the cures seem to be permanent, at any rate, a trial bottle at 25c will take away the itch at once—instantly. We are sure of this.

The Druggist
I am a druggist, lorn and lone,
A being without guile,
When strangers grab my telephone
I merely smile.

A big directory I keep,
And should through any stress
You want my aid, I'll in it peep
For an address.

I have on hand of glue and string
A large and free supply;
I'll gladly get you anything
You'd like to try.

At midnight I climb slowly to
My little cot to camp,
But I'll get up to furnish you
A postage stamp.

Emotions I have learned to curb;
I've always helpful been,
And naught that happens can disturb
My gentle grin.

Useless Argument
The eloquent and humorous Dr.
Parkhurst, when abstruse theological arguments arise, is fond of silencing the disputants with a story about a little girl.

This little girl said to her father:
"Papa, can God make stones?"

"Yes, darling," the father answered.

"Can He make big stones?"

"Oh, yes."

"Could He make a stone as big as a mountain?"

"Oh, yes, of course."

The little girl frowned and said:
"Well, then, could He make a stone so big he couldn't lift it?"—

A Simple Answer

A school teacher in one of the lower grades once asked her room,
"What is the wind?"

At a thoughtful pause, a small hand was raised. "Well, Robert,
what is your answer?" she asked.

"Why—er, wind is the air when it gets in a hurry," answered Robert.

Back to the Home Roost

A traveler in Arkansas came to a cabin and heard a terrifying series of groans and yells. It sounded as if murder was being committed.

He rushed in and found a gigantic negro woman beating a wizened little old man with a club, while he cried for mercy.

"Here, woman!" shouted the traveler, "what do you mean by beating that man?"

"He's mah husband," and I'll beat him all I likes," she replied, giving the man a few more cracks by way of emphasis.

"No matter if he is your husband,
you have no right to murder him."

"Go along, white man, and luf me alone. I'll suah beat him some moah."

"What has he done?"

"What he done? Why, this trif-flin 'n-count nigger done lef' le door of my chicken house open and all mah chickens done gone out."

"Pshaw, that's nothing. They will come back."

"Come back! No, suh, they'll go

RECIPE FOR WEAK KIDNEYS

Highly Recommended Prescription for Kidneys and Bladder

Persons suffering from such symptoms as pains in the back, dizziness, frequent, scanty and highly-colored urination, soreness in the hip or groin, rheumatic pains in the joints or any other indications of kidney or bladder trouble, would do well to take the following treatment: Mix
one-half ounce fluid extract Buchu,
one-half ounce Murax compound with six ounces good pure gin and take three times a day after eating,
in doses of one to two teaspoonfuls.
This is the most effective prescription known for kidney or bladder trouble. All the above ingredients can be bought separately and mixed at home or any good druggist can put up this mixture.

Weak or disordered kidneys ought to have the most prompt attention, as neglect in this respect is apt to cause chronic rheumatism, Bright's disease or diabetes.

He seemed lost in reverie for several minutes, and she asked with some impatience what he was studying about.

"I was trying to think of a word they use when the government has war or any kind of trouble. It's something about a corpse, but I can't remember it."

"A corpse? How perfectly horrid!
Can it be possible, Mr. Ardmore, that you mean the writ of habeas corpus?" The twinkle in his eye left her unable to determine whether his ignorance was real, or assumed for his own amusement.

"That's it," beamed Ardmore.
"We've got to suspend it if worst comes to worst. Then you can put anybody you like into a dungeon, and nobody can get him out—not for a million years."

"I wonder where they keep it?"
asked Jerry. "It must be here somewhere. Perhaps it's in the safe."

"I don't think it's a thing, like a lemon, or a photograph, or a bottle of ink; it's a document, like a Thanksgiving proclamation, and you order out the militia, and the soldiers have to leave their work and assemble at their armories, and it's all very serious, and somebody is likely to get shot."

"I don't think it would be nice to shoot people," said Jerry. "That would do the administration a terrible lot of harm."

"Of course we won't resort to extreme measures unless we are forced to do. And then, after we have exhausted all the means at our command, we can call on the president to send United States troops."

He was proud of his knowledge, which had lingered in his sub-consciousness from a review of the military powers of the states which he had heard once from Griswold, who knew about such matters; but he was brought to earth promptly enough.

"Mr. Ardmore, how dare you suggest that we call United States troops into North Carolina? Don't you know that would be an insult to every loyal son of this state? I should have you know that the state of North Carolina is big enough to take care of herself, and if any president of the United States sends any troops down here while I'm running this office, I'll find that, while our people will gladly die, they never surrender."

"Oh, I didn't mean anything like that by what I said," pleaded Ardmore, frightened almost to tears.
"Of course, we've got our own troops,
and we'll get through all our business without calling for help. I shouldn't any more call on the president than I'd call on the czar of Russia."

She seemed satisfied with this disclaimer, and produced a diary in which Governor Dangerfield had noted his appointments far into the future.

"We'll have to break a lot of engagements for papa. Here's a speech to make at Wilmington at the laying of the cornerstone of the new orphan asylum. That's tomorrow, and papa can't be there, so we'll send a telegram of congratulation to be read instead. Then he was to preside at a convention of the Old Fiddlers' Association at Goldsboro the next day, and he can't do that. I guess we'd better telegraph and say how sorry he is to be delayed by important official business. And here's—why,
I had forgotten about the National Guard encampment, that's beginning now."

"Do you mean the state militia?"
Ardmore inquired.

"Why, of course. They're having their annual encampment over in Az-bell County at Camp Dangerfield—they always name the camp for the governor—and father was to visit the camp next Saturday for his annual inspection. That's near your county, where your farm is; didn't you know that?"

Ardmore was humble, as he always was when his ignorance was exposed,
but his face brightened joyfully.

"You mustn't break that engagement. Inspecting his troops is one of the most important things a governor has to do. It's just like a king or an emperor. I've seen Emperor William and King Humbert inspect their soldiers, and they go galloping by like mad, with all the soldiers saluting, and it's perfectly bully. And then there have to be maneuvers, to see whether the troops know how to fight or not, and forced marches and sham battles."

"Papa always speaks to the men," suggested Jerry, a little abashed by the breadth and splendor of Ardmore's knowledge. His comparison of the North Carolina militia with the armies of Europe pleased her.

"I think the ladies of the royal family inspect the troops, too, sometimes," he continued. "The queens are always honorary colonels of regiments, and present them with flags, which is a graceful thing to do."

"Colonel Gillingwater never told me that, and he's the adjutant-general of the state and ought to know."

"What's he colonel of?" asked Ardmore gloomily.

"He was colonel in the Spanish War, or was going to be, but he got typhoid fever, and so he couldn't go to Cuba and papa appointed him adjutant-general as a reward for his services; but everybody calls him Colonel just the same."

"It looks like a pretty easy way of getting a title," murmured Ardmore.
"I had typhoid fever once, and nearly died, and all my hair came out."

"You oughtn't to speak that way of my fiancée. It's quite impertinent in a mere private secretary to talk so."

"I beg your pardon. I forgot that you were engaged. You'll have to go to Camp Dangerfield and inspect the troops yourself, and they would a lot

You mustn't talk to me as though I

"But there's no use of making be-

"Not the least little tiny bit, you don't! Do you suppose, if you were a gentleman I knew and had been in-

"But I pretend to be a gentleman; you certainly wouldn't be talking to me if you thought me anything else."

Mr. Ardmore. A gentleman wouldn't

"But if you know I'm a liar why are you telling me these secrets and

VIROQUA TEACHER WEDDED SATURDAY

VIROQUA, Wis., Oct. 19.—(Special.)—One of the prettiest home weddings ever solemnized here was that of Miss Kathryn Joyce, a prominent teacher, to Mr. Frank G. English, an attorney of Duluth. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Joyce, at half past one Saturday afternoon.

Rev. C. E. Butters was the officiating clergyman, and used the impressive ring service. To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Mrs. Ray Vergeront of Montfort, the fair young bride descended the stairway and was met beneath a bower of green by the groom and Rev. Butters. There, attended only by the ringbearers, little Misses Esther Slack and Genevieve Truesdale, the vows of Hymen were spoken. The bride wore a beautiful gown of embroidered swiss and carried a large bouquet of white carnations. Miss Florence Stricker, a cousin of the bride, sang a selection. After congratulations light refreshments were served. The couple received a large number of beautiful gifts.

Mischievous hands had decorated on of the Southeastern cars with red hearts. The trunk of the bridal couple was also embellished. Not being satisfied with this, friends managed to slyly pin a red paper heart on each of the pair, as they entered the train.

Their future home will be at Duluth, where the groom has an extensive law practice. His bride is one of the most prominent of Viroqua girls, well educated in books and music.

If Parents Knew

How important it is that school children have proper food, they would see to it that

Grape-Nuts

and cream is served one or two meals a day regularly.

Grape-Nuts is scientifically made of wheat and barley and contains the phosphate of potash, grown in the grain, for building brain and nerves to the highest degree of perfection.

This food can be eaten and digested in the time required to cook an ordinary meal, and children like its neutral flavour.

It is not only a brain-builder, but keeps them plump and rosy.

TAKE THEM OUT
Or Feed Them Food They Can Study On.

When a student begins to break down from lack of the right kind of food, there are only two things to do; either take him out of school or feed him properly on food that will rebuild the brain and nerve cells. That food is Grape-Nuts.

A boy writes from Jamestown, N. Y., saying: "A short time ago I got into a bad condition from overstudy, but Mother having heard about Grape-Nuts food began to feed me on it. It satisfied my hunger better than any other food, and the results were marvelous. I got fleshy like a good fellow. My usual morning headaches disappeared, and I found I could study for a long period without fatigue.

"My face was pale and thin, but is now round and has considerable color. After I had been using Grape-Nuts for about two months I felt like a new boy altogether. I have gained greatly in strength as well as flesh, and it is a pleasure to study now that I am not bothered with my head. I passed all my examinations with a reasonably good percentage, extra good in some of them, and it is Grape-Nuts that has saved me from a year's delay in entering college.

"Father and mother have both been improved by the use of Grape-Nuts. Mother was troubled with sleepless nights, and got very thin, and looked care-worn. She has regained her normal strength, sleeps well nights and looks well."

NEW MILEAGE ON THE MILWAUKEE

Two Thousand Miles for $40 to Be Used According to Laws of Various States

The Western Passenger association of which the Milwaukee road is a member and the Southwestern passenger association have adopted a new kind of interchangeable mileage books, effective January 1, which will take the place of several kinds now issued in their territories. It will be for 2,000 miles and will be offered for $40. It will be good for use of one person only at the present time. In most of the states, where there is a flat two cent rate, coupons will be taken out from the book, mile for mile, while in other states, with higher rates, more coupons will be detached.

The coupons in the different states embraced by the two associations will be detached as follows:

Mile for mile: Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa, South Dakota, Illinois, Kansas, Northern Michigan, Nebraska and Oklahoma.

Five coupons for each four miles: Arkansas, Colorado, Louisiana, Missouri, Montana, Texas, Wyoming.

Three coupons for each two miles: New Mexico.

In some of the states such as Colorado, Montana, North Dakota and Wyoming several of the lines are not parties to the agreement. It is likely, however, that the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul road will make the book usable as far as Fargo, N. D.

Although the book will be interchangeable it will be subject to the regulations of each line.

The new book takes the place of the credential book, the refund $50 ticket and the 1,000 and 5,000 mile books based on the rate of two or two and one half cents as the case may be.

We, the undersigned, wish to extend our sincere thanks to all friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us during our late bereavement, in the death of our beloved mother, especially do we thank Rev. J. W. Bergholz and the ladies of the North Side German Lutheran church.

CAPT. TED COY OF YALE

NEW HAVEN, Conn.—The return of Captain Ted Coy is eagerly awaited by the Yale rooters. Coy has been in a New York hospital since the team reported for practice and it is believed that it will be impossible for him to get into action before late in October. The loss of Coy is a blow to the Elis. He will not be missed, of course, in the early games, but they want him badly in the big event of the year. Than Coy there are no better fullbacks in the country. He is a hard line plunger, has speed that makes him valuable in open field work and withal has great defensive power. Few players can gauge the point of the opponents' attack more quickly than the Blue captain. In addition he is one of the best punters in the east today.

Logan is acting captain of the Yale eleven and will lead in the early games. There is a great fight on for positions especially in the line. There is one big task ahead of Yale, the prevention of another Harvard triumph in the big game. Howard

CRAZED WITH BOOZE LEAPS FROM TRAIN

Emil Dalton, Insane from Overindulgence, Sent to Home Near Lakefield

After sleeping off his "jag" at station No. 2 on Mill street yesterday afternoon, Emil Dalton, Lakefield, Minn., who had asked Thomas Gibson to lock him up and who was later escorted to the station by Mail Carrier A. A. Gibson, was released and put on the evening train for Lakefield, Minn.

When the officers arrived at the station yesterday noon, the man was sleeping in the cell, where he had been imprisoned. A search of his clothing brought to light $14 in currency and a railroad ticket to Lakefield. It seems that the man had been drinking heavily since he left his home a few days ago and the effects of the liquor on his system seemed very disastrous to the balance of his mind and people who saw him yesterday say that he acted the part of an insane man. He was allowed to sleep at the station the greater part of the afternoon. At supper time, after he had awakened from his heavy slumber, he was escorted to the south side station of the Milwaukee and put on a train for his home town.

When the Southern Minnesota passenger train passed Bridge Switch, the man jumped off. Word was sent to the local station and two officers were dispatched to the scene to take him into custody. He was taken back to the city and after spending the night here was sent to his home at Lakefield.

Jones is the head coach this season. He had splendid success with the Syracuse team last year.

REBUILDING CHUTE
DAM ONLY METHOD

Water Cannot Otherwise Be Sent Past Onalaska and North La Crosse, Say Residents

It is the general opinion of prominent members of the North Side Progressive association, that the reservoirs of the La Crosse Water Power company at Hatfield and in that vicinity will not prevent the water from flowing through Hammond Chute and into the Mississippi river, thus being of no material help to the present condition of Black river.

The bed of the Mississippi river is considerably lower than that of the Black river, and as long as this chute remains without a dam, water from the Black will be continually turned into another channel. This, it is claimed, is where the entire trouble lies. The reservoirs of the water power company will help greatly to maintain a more even stage of water, but when that water reaches Hammond Chute, it will flow into the Mississippi river, thus being of no material help to the cities of Onalaska and North La Crosse.

It is understood that citizens of these two localities are negotiating with the government officials for the reconstruction of these dams, which it is claimed have been stolen little by little. If the dams are repaired all the water will flow past the cities and the sewage problem will be solved.

PARKS CLOAK CO.
OPENS STORE HERE

La Crosse is to have another ladies' furnishing store, which will be opened here in the very near future.

Edwin G. Parks, president of the Parks Cloak company of Appleton, who has been in La Crosse for a few days after returning from New York, where he has been doing his fall buying, makes the announcement.

Mr. Parks concluded arrangements for the lease of a building and its entire remodeling and overhauling before leaving for New York again today, where he will purchase a complete new stock for the La Crosse store.

Fixtures and furnishings will be entirely new and up-to-date, the management having arranged to expend about $4,000 on the interior of the store. Today Mr. Parks said that his first aim in fitting up the store will be to make it comfortable and inviting to customers. High class goods will be carried and prices will be moderate, to suit the purse of the average conservative buyer.

The Parks Cloak company will carry an entirely new New York line of up-to-date cloaks, coats, suits and ladies' furnishings. The store building formerly occupied by Erhart's pharmacy at Main and Fifth streets has been leased and is being overhauled.

STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY MEETING

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 19.—(Special.)—The fifty-seventh annual meeting of the State Historical society of Wisconsin will be held in the state historical library building in this city next Thursday afternoon and evening. The literary program will not exceed one hour, to be followed by an informal reception.

Considerable interest promises to spring from the reading of a paper by John T. Lee of the department of state, Madison, on "A Bibliography of Jonathan Carver." It is styled as the only complete bibliography of this noted author, who was the first Wisconsin traveler during the British regime. Of late years the integrity of Carver's book of travels has been called in question, but Mr. Lee offers new and valuable evidence to prove Carver's authenticity and his ability to have produced the work.

The meeting will open at 4 o'clock by President William Ward Wight of Milwaukee. The usual official reports will be presented. Two curators will be elected to succeed George B. Burrows and N. B. Van Slyke, deceased, of Madison, as well as twelve for the ensuing term of three years. Other routine business will be transacted. Immediately after the business session of the society, the executive committee, consisting of the curators and other officers, will hold its annual meeting.

"WE WILL NEVER BE WITHOUT IT"

Says Mrs. Knapp in Recommending Father John's Medicine

Mrs. Margaret Knapp, of Detroit, Mich., says: "Three years ago I had a severe attack of bronchitis. My doctor ordered me to bed for four weeks. There seemed to be no change, when by chance a friend advised me to try Father John's Medicine, which I did. And after using it I was entirely cured. My son Elmer, whose picture you find with me, is now 14 years old. He has been having a standing cold since November. I finally persuaded him to take Father John's. He is rid of his cold, and his cough has almost entirely left him. His appetite has increased nicely since taking Father John's Medicine. We highly recommend Father John's Medicine for all colds, coughs and bronchitis. We will never be without Father John's Medicine in our home." In the evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, will be held an open meeting in the museum on the fourth floor, to include the president's address and a paper on "Indian Diplomacy and the Opening of the Revolution in the West," by James Alton James, professor of history in Northwestern university, Evanston, Ill. Some of the following papers will be presented by title only; by others in very brief synopsis: They will, however, be published in full in the proceedings for the year.

"A Bibliography of Jonathan Carver," by John T. Lee, Madison.

"Reminiscences of Early Grant County," by Jonathan Henry Evans, Platteville. Mr. Evans was president of the state board of normal regents for many years. His description of shipping lead by ox teams to Milwaukee, via Madison, is graphic, as is the account of his first meeting with Gen. U. S. Grant. He has known most of the great men of southwest Wisconsin and characterizes many of them.

"Settlement of Green Lake county," by Richard Dart of Dartford. This is a series of pioneer reminiscences, by a son of the first settler on Green Lake, who came to that region in 1840.

"Settlement of Arcadia," by Eben Douglas Pierce, M. D., of Vancouver, Wash., a sketch of the early settlement of Trempealeau valley, which began soon after the Black Hawk war.

"An Appreciation of James Rood Doolittle," by Duane Mowry of Milwaukee. The author defends the political course of Senator Doolittle, contending that he was a "consistent supporter of the same political principles during his entire political career."

"Paper making in Wisconsin," by Publius V. Lawson. An account of the first paper mills in Milwaukee and Whitewater prefaces a description of the inception of this great industry in the Fox River valley, where the different enterprises and their growth are traced to the present time. Early methods and materials are noted, also the changes and improvements that have built up this manufacturing enterprise.

"Organization, Boundaries and Names of Wisconsin Counties," by Louise Phelps Kellogg of the society's staff. A chronological list of 71 counties of the state, showing their organization, the territory from which they were formed, the later changes of boundaries as authorized by statute, and the derivation of county names.

There will be arranged several special museum exhibits, incident to Prof. James' paper, among these a display of George Rogers Clark MSS.; old maps, bearing on the early history of the west; and a remarkable collection of Indian wampum treaty belts. There will also be on view, by the Madison Art association, an attractive loan collection of oil paintings (chiefly portraits) by Mrs. Samantha L. Huntley of New York city. The last named exhibition will be open from Oct. 11 to 23. Persons not members of the historical society are welcome to attend the sessions.

JUDGE REED HERE MONDAY
Next Monday Judge Reed will arrive here to take up the unfinished term of Judge Higbee, which the latter declined to try because he was interested in them before he took the bench.

On the same date the circuit court will reconvene at Sparta and Judge Higbee, and the reporter will go there. Judge Reed will bring his own court reporter with him and unless the term of United States' court is completed, Reporter Harrison will appoint Don C. Lewis to cover the case at Sparta for him.

One way not to settle a question is to argue about it.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out, and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. PALMER SELLS HALF OF BLOCK
Sebastian Auberger Buys Remainder of Building of Inland Printing Company
An important business deal was closed this morning whereby David Palmer sold his interest in the business block, corner of Second and Main streets, to his partner, Sebastian Auberger. The building is occupied by the Inland Printing Company on the first floor and by the Star Knitting Works on the third floor.
Mr. Palmer last week sold his interest in the La Crosse Steam Laundry company and is preparing to dispose of all of his business interests in La Crosse. "In about three weeks I will go out west to spend the winter," said Mr. Palmer "and I will in all probability decide to locate there permanently. I still have several other pieces of property in La Crosse which I expect to sell before I leave."

A BANKER'S NERVE
Broken by Coffee and Restored by Postum.
A banker needs perfect control of the nerves and a clear, quick, accurate brain. A prominent banker of Chattanooga tells how he keeps himself in condition:
"Up to 17 years of age I was not allowed to drink coffee, but as soon as I got out into the world I began to use it and grew very fond of it. For some years I noticed no bad effects from its use, but in time it began to affect me unfavorably. My hands trembled, the muscles of my face twitched, my mental processes seemed slow and in other ways my system got out of order. These conditions grew so bad at last that I had to give up coffee altogether.
"My attention having been drawn to Postum, I began its use on leaving off the coffee, and it gives me pleasure to testify to its value. I find it a delicious beverage; like it just as well as I did coffee, and during the years that I have used Postum I have been free from the distressing symptoms that accompanied the use of coffee. The nervousness has entirely disappeared, and I am as steady of hand as a boy of 25, though I am more than 92 years old. I owe all this to Postum." There's a Reason. COOK AGAIN TO SCALE M'KINLEY
Explorer Cancels All Lecture Dates to Clear His Veracity of Slurs Cast Upon It
CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 19.—Dr. Frederick A. Cook, the explorer, will again brave hardship and death by leading an expedition in person to recover the records he says he left at the summit of Mount McKinley, in Alaska, the highest mountain in America.
In an interview with the United Press before leaving the city the explorer declared his intention of again leaving the comforts of civilization for the perils of the wilderness to clear his veracity of the slur that has been cast on it.
Dr. Cook did not say when his expedition will start. He said, however, it would require two months here in the United States to equip the expedition and another three months to reach Alaska, penetrate to the mountain, make the ascent and return to the coast.
Cancels Lecture Dates
The explorer said he would begin the preparation for the expedition next month, having canceled all future lecture dates after this week so that he may give his entire attention to the work. Probably the Alaskan journey will start in the early spring.

TERRORISTS BESIEGED IN SPANISH CHURCH
LISBON, Oct. 19.—A cordon of troops has been drawn about the square containing St. Lorenz church, which with the surrounding buildings was damaged by a bomb thrown by terrorists, and the public has been barred from the neighborhood. While nothing can be learned of what is progressing inside the circle of troops, it is reported that a party of terrorists caught in the buildings after the explosion has barricaded the ruins and is standing off the attacks of the troops.
It is believed that the isolation of the neighborhood by the troops is to prevent other terrorists coming to the assistance of their besieged comrades.

AVIATORS ANXIOUS TO CONTROL THE AIR
NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Already they are beginning to take steps to control the air. Lytle Fox, in a lecture before the Aero club of America, suggests that the club have laws enacted defining the rights of those who are constantly in the air. He pointed out that the old ruling that the men who owned property also owned the air above it, might bring about a conflict between owners and aviators.
Fox thinks that the various states should condemn certain aerial status as a public highway and take title to it.

WHITE DECLARES IT'S UP TO CANNON
In Kansas City Speech Says Dictator Made More Anarchists than Emma Goldman
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 19.—William Allen White, came, ate, and talked, and today, politicians declare, it is up to Jos. G. Cannon to wonder "what's the matter with Kansas?" The result of Mr. White's conversation which was given to inquire newspaper men and continued at the dinner given at the fiftieth anniversary of the Wyandotte constitution, was gracefully draped around the theme, "People are tired of Cannon."
"They are going to retire Cannon," Mr. White declared. "Here in the west and middle west the great movement for progress is well under way and there is nothing that can stop it. Before the end of the Taft administration, the progressive element in the Republican party will be in control and the end of things reactionary is in sight."
"Emma Goldman, in her palmist days, never made so many anarchists as Cannon."
"Public sentiment on the subject is crystallized; it is only a matter of casting the ballots. We have had our last Missouri compromise. Mark the significance of this: In every state except one that furnished progressive senators in the fight against Cannonism and Aldrichism, the direct primary is in vogue."
There will be no Cannon representatives in the next congress representing Kansas districts, Mr. White predicted.

HOME FROM WORK; FINDS WIFE DEAD
Children Play About Their Silent Mother, Not Knowing Awful Truth
When John Liska, violinist in the Kreutz's orchestra returned home last night after playing afternoon and evening with the orchestra, he found his wife stretched dead upon the floor of their home, 1015 Mississippi street. Two tots of 4 and 5 years played about their mother's silent form in blissful ignorance that she would never speak to them. A child of 6 months was crying in its crib nearby. Sudden attack of heart trouble is said to be the cause of Mrs. Liska's sudden death.

REV. JONES' EULOGY OF MR. CARGILL
live on such terms of sympathy and helpful friendship with their fellow-citizens as Mr. Cargill did there would be far less friction between capital and labor.
Democratic and Candid
"Closely allied with this warm human sympathy were 'his democratic and unostentatious spirit and manner.' His candidness and simplicity were as natural as they were winning. The great business man, the financier was never obstructed.
"Somehow these things were forgotten in his presence. You thought only of the kindly, sympathetic, every-day man, who was as approachable and considerate as the heart of the humblest and most diffident could wish. A man of a narrow selfish nature when he has an advantage over his fellowmen will unconsciously manifest a sense of his importance and of the insignificance of others. This arrogant spirit had no place in the life of our brother, and perhaps this as much as any trait of character endeared him to the heart of the people.
A Prince in His Home.
The last and crowning characteristic I shall mention was "his overflowing affection and tenderness in his home."
Home is God's sacred and sweet symbol of heaven, and in no sphere is a man's character more thoroughly exposed, tested and appreciated than within this hallowed circle. In the Bible it is said of some men that they were princes in their homes. Man may be affable and companionable in business and society, but if they are not affectionate, considerate and tenderly solicitous in their homes, they lack the first elements of a genuine Christian manliness. We can safely say of Mr. Cargill that he was a prince in his home.
"He was at his best in the family circle. No call of business, no social duties, no outside allurements of any kind were allowed to interfere with his sacred and tender obligations to his home. Troubles and sickness endeared them all the more to him, and his patient and ever watchful care for his own was the crowning virtue of his life.
"A great and a noble man has been taken away and we do not believe—judging by the universal testimony of those who knew him best, that we can possibly exaggerate the value of his life to this community and the inspiring example it should be to the men of this city.
"I will also mention 'his appreciation of the ideal and spiritual things of life."
Not Prompted by Display.
"I have not yet found anyone to insinuate that his generous gifts to religious and educational institutions were in the least prompted by a spirit of display or to carry favor, nor merely help to build up the fabric of a great material civilization. To him those gifts represented great ideals, lofty things of the mind and spirit.
"He appreciated character as the basic principle of our success.
"Any cause or institution that to him mind worked for the creation and upbuilding of character had his heartiest support and cooperation.
"To me one of the most essential elements of his character was this vision of the ideal—of his firm belief that a soul, well-balanced, strong life must be built upon sound principles of religion and education.
"His larger benefactions went to the church, the college, and the Y. M. C. A. The institutions that touch life at its very roots, and enable and baptize our material progress by having its foundation and end the ideal things of mind and heart.
Loyal to City.
"Also 'his large place in industry and Benevolences of this city' must not go unmentioned. I am told that he has been identified in this city with more industries, great and small, than any other citizen, and this mainly not for his own advantage but largely for the encouragement and upbuilding of home industries that build up our city and provide employment for our growing population. He manifested a genuine patriotic loyal spirit towards this city, and today his good name is spoken of with tenderest regret by the multitude he has helped and encouraged in a business way as to his benevolences in this community it would be in vain for me a compar-

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY FORMED
Session at Viroqua Comes to an End After an Interesting Session
At the first meeting of the Young People's societies of the La Crosse and the Fillmore districts, which came to a close at Viroqua Sunday, the steps for a permanent organization was perfected, a constitution was adopted and officers were elected. At the business meeting Saturday the following officers were chosen: T. Hovstad, president; H. Rasmussen, vice president; Lena Espeseth, secretary, and A. Glerre, treasurer.
The feature of the first day's meeting was the reception and banquet at Runnigen hall Friday evening. Music was furnished by the Westby orchestra and Miss Dagny Thompson of Lanesboro. The hall was appropriately decorated.
Walters—Albert Solverson, Thomas Dahl and Henry Johnson.
Waitresses—Jostie Benson, Inga Moen, Hulda Hauge, Alma Nelson, Nettie Anderson, Cella Tollefson, Rhoda Helgeson, Hanna Espeseth, Lena Espeseth, Mabel Lein, Gertie Fladden, Nellie Tollefson, Susie Sherry, Mattie Hoffland, Millie Jefferson, Ushers—Otto Otteson, T. C. Knutson and M. D. Helgeson.
Lanesboro was chosen as the convention city for next year.
Sunday addresses were delivered by pastors R. Anderson, and H. P. Grimsby of Minneapolis. In the evening a festival was held for the visitors.
Resolutions
Resolutions passed by the convention:
"The La Crosse and Fillmore Districts' Young People's convention, assembled at Viroqua, Wis., on October 15-17, inclusive, hereby desire to pass the following resolutions:
"Be it hereby resolved, that expressions of heartfelt thanks and gratitude be tendered the following:
"To the people of the city of Viroqua for their hospitality tendered the convention.
"Very grateful does the convention feel for the fine reception tendered it on Friday evening.
"Especially do we feel thankful to the various churches for the accommodation afforded the convention.
"We express our thanks to the ministers who have shown interest in the convention and especially to Rev. R. Anderson of La Crosse and Rev. H. P. Grimsby of Minneapolis for the very able and instructive lectures delivered.
"A most sincere vote of thanks is given the local congregation and its pastor, Rev. Chr. E. Syblirud, for their untiring efforts in bringing about this convention to the success that it has attained.
"We feel much indebted to the vocal soloist, Miss Dagny Thompson, and the pianist, Edith Gasee of Lanesboro, Minn., for the excellent musical selections given the convention from time to time.
"We cannot but include a vote of thanks to the local press for the splendid advertising medium it has been to the convention.
"The convention feels much pleased with the grand chorus singing, under the able leadership of Mr. Jesse Saugstad, and wants to thank tively new comer to try to make any estimate of them.

"Quite incidentally this summer I had a glimpse of what was constantly being done by this careful and unostentatious friend of the needy.
"I was amazed at the varied and numerous calls for money that were continually coming in to him and equally amazed at the patient hearing and generous response given to these calls.
"Wealth with a heart to help and the judgment to help wisely is a God given gift and such we found it to be in the possession of our departed brother.
BLADDER TROUBLES NEED PROMPT ATTENTION
Perhaps you don't know how much work is required of your kidneys and bladder or of how much importance they are. Do you know that on these important organs hinges good health? Many an apparently strong, healthy man or woman has been stricken without notice by serious kidney and bladder disease only to realize too late what might have been prevented with proper care and attention.
Some of the early symptoms of weak kidneys and bladder are lumbago, rheumatism, earache of the bladder, pain or dull ache in the back, joints or muscles, at times have headache or indigestion, dizziness, you may have a sallow complexion, purify or dark circles under the eyes, sometimes feel as though you had heart trouble, may have plenty of ambition but no strength, get weak and waste away.
If you find you have some of the symptoms mentioned, you need then a remedy that will reach the seat of the disease and at the same time build up the system generally.
Such a remedy is Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. In thousands of cases it has accomplished just the work you need performed now.
Sample Bottle of Swamp-Root Free by Mail
Send to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y., for a sample bottle. It will convince anyone. You will also receive a booklet of valuable information, telling all about the kidneys and bladder. When writing, be sure and mention the La Crosse Daily Tribune. For sale at all drug stores. Price fifty-cents and one dollar.

THE REMEDY S.S.S. FOR SORES AND ULCERS
There is but one way to cure an old sore or chronic ulcer, and that is to remove the cause that produces and keeps it open. No matter where located, any sore that remains until it becomes chronic does so because of impure blood; the circulation constantly discharges its polluted matter into the place and it is impossible for nature to heal the sore. S.S.S. heals sores and ulcers by purifying the blood. It removes every trace of taint or impurity from the circulation, and thus completely does away with the cause. No local application reaches below the infected flesh at the spot, and for this reason can have no curative effect on a sore or ulcer; while such treatment is being used alone, the germs and impurities are constantly increasing in the blood and the sore is bound to grow worse. When S.S.S. has cleansed the blood and enriched and purified the circulation, the place begins to take on a more healthy appearance, the different symptoms show improvement, the flesh around the ulcer gets firm, new skin and tissues are formed, and aided by pure, rich blood, nature provides a perfect and lasting cure. Under the tonic and blood-purifying effects of S.S.S., the system is built up, and those whose health has been impaired by the drain and worry of an old sore will be greatly benefited by its use. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice free to all who write.

GALESVILLE LINE ASSURED ANYWAY
W. J. Ferris Tells Winona Aldermen it will Stop There if Franchise Is Not Accorded
In case the franchise asked from the Winona city council last night is not granted by that city, the new interurban road will be run from Sparta to Galesville, via La Crosse, the terminal being at Galesville. Mr. Ferris told the Winona aldermen the money is now available to go ahead with the work and urged their early consideration. Uniform rates between Galesville and Winona and Galesville and La Crosse are demanded by the Winonas to prevent discrimination in favor of this city. An investigation of the Winona street car service was recommended at the same meeting. It is the general opinion of business men in Winona that the franchise will pass.
Those who partook in said chorus.
"In closing, we thank one and all who have been instrumental in making this convention so successful. In parting, the convention will long be remembered."

WAS OBLIGED TO USE CRUTCHES
Plight of a Michigan Woman Before She Found the Remedy That Cured Her Rheumatism.
For years evidence that rheumatism is curable by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills has been published.
That hundreds of people have tried the treatment with good results is shown by the increasing number of cures reported.
Every sufferer from this most painful disease who does not try this treatment is neglecting the most hopeful means of recovery as is shown by the statement of Mrs. A. B. Bixby, whose address is R. F. D. No. 2, Pontiac, Mich. She says:
"A few years ago I began to be troubled with dreadful pains in my right hip. It grew worse rapidly and I was obliged to walk with crutches, while the increasing pains nearly drove me wild. My appetite was poor, I was reduced in weight and had to be helped to bed. My general health was very poor. I lost in strength from night sweats and as I had a cough many of my friends thought I was going into consumption.
"I doctored for a long time and went to Detroit to see a specialist, but received no benefit. My brother-in-law, while on a visit, begged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as he had known of some remarkable cures they had made. I did not have much faith in them but was willing to try most anything. I was taken two boxes before I was certain they were benefiting me. My improvement was steady from then on, my appetite became good and the pain less. I continued using the pills until cured and I feel better than in years.
"Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were originally a prescription used in the doctor's private practice and their benefit to mankind has been increased many thousands fold by their being placed on general sale. They are entirely safe, contain no opiates or other habit-forming drugs. They build up the blood, strengthen the nerves and have cured rheumatism in almost every form, anemia, troubles of women and growing girls and many forms of weakness.
"Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes $2.50, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y."

DISCARD MONITOR BREWERY GROUNDS

Only Downtown Location Suitable for Ball Grounds

DIRECTORS TO TAKE IT UP

Double Tracking will Also be Discussed; Attendance Figures for the League

"It is the Levee park we want for a downtown baseball park," said President John A. Elliott of the Minny league this afternoon. Another proposition that has been suggested is a double track to the present league park and good service. No action has been taken by the local baseball directors but President Rooney of the local club has assured the directors that something will be done about it at the next meeting. No negotiations have been entered into with the park commissioners and the baseball men are speculating as to the way in which the commissioners will take up the proposition. But a small portion of the park would have to be filled in with soil to make it an ideal location for a baseball park. It is understood that some definite action will be taken in regard to the matter at the next meeting of the directors which will occur next month.

Discard Monitor Plan
President Rooney stated that he had looked over the ground at the Monitor Brewery and said that he had found it an ideal place for a ball park but that it was estimated that to fill it up would cost at least $18,000. This proposition has been discarded.

Another way in which the present ball park could be greatly remedied is by double tracking the line of the street car to the ball park and the establishment of a good service. There has been much complaint of the service during the past season and the baseball association will seek to bring about a change next year. Inquiry at the office of the City Railway company brought out the information that at the present time there were no plans for this work. This matter will also be taken up at the meeting of the directors said President Rooney.

Attendance Figures
La Crosse ranked last in attendance during the past season having less than one-half that of Duluth. Following are the figures which were submitted at the league meeting at Duluth: Duluth, 39,453; Superior, 35,504; Winona, 28,200; Eau Claire, 18,464; Wausau, 15,109, and La Crosse, 15,029.

JEFFRIES-JOHNSON BOUT NOW ASSURED

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Jeffries will meet Johnson just as soon as details for a bout can be agreed upon; and he'll knock Jack's head off sure.

The above statement by Sam Berger, recently sparring and vaudeville partner of Jeffries, is being discussed by fight fans today following Berger's sojourn in town between trains yesterday on his way to New York. Berger left last night for New York where he expects to meet Jeffries on Thursday and begin operations for signing final articles for a fight with Johnson.

"That bout out west looks queer in a good many ways," said Berger, commenting on the Ketchel-Johnson fight, "it was a mistake to send Ketchel against a man so much heavier than himself in the first place. It was putting money in Johnson's pocket."

C. R. Kluger the jeweler, 1060 Virginia Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I was so weak from kidney trouble that I could hardly walk a hundred feet. Four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cleared my complexion, cured my backache and the irregularities disappeared, and I can now attend to business every day and recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers, as it cured me after the doctors and other remedies had failed." BABE ADAMS ESCAPES BEING "HOBSONIZED"

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 19.—Chas. (Babe) Adams, who pitched three of the seven games of the world's series for the Pirates and won them all today escaped being "Hobsonized" only by the quickest kind of work, employing his good pair of legs he made a flying getaway from his home on Mawhinney street and deliberately hid from his admirers in a private hotel.

By actual count there were 436 young women who wanted to kiss him. The crowd gathered shortly after 10 o'clock. Babe did not appear. Instead he lurked in the fastnesses of his home until he could stand the strain no longer. Then he slipped out the back door and made a break for safety.

You can't smoke humans away from devilry with fire-and-brimstone threats. But we'll willingly gallop to salvation along a rosy path. We balk at health foods which taste like bran or hay, and shy at "hygiene" shoes because they are usually as beautiful as a busted crutch.

"Must my feet look ugly like that to be comfortable?" asks the woman,—and she decides to suffer. "Squeeze mine," decides the man, "if ease means spreading my toes like a rooster's."

But give us shoes which look well even though they are healthful, and we'll line up with both feet and cheer the word along.

The Gotzian Health & Walk Easy Shoe for Men and Women does not cinch nerves and bloodvessels with devilish persistency and torment the helpless toes.

This shoe does not bind like a vise. It supports like a stay.

COMISKEY SELECTING WHITE SOX MANAGER

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—With the baseball season now a thing of the past, Charles Comiskey, president of the Chicago White Sox, today began the task of building up a brand new team for next season and incidentally the task of selecting a new manager to lead the Sox when the flowers bloom again.

A mysterious two hour conference yesterday between Comiskey and Hugh Duffy, manager of the Providence club, revived the report today that Duffy would be selected as manager. Neither Duffy nor Comiskey would discuss this report, however.

Simultaneously close friends of Fielder Jones, the old manager of the Sox, declared Fielder had announced to him that he would lead a major league club next season. This is taken to mean that he and Comiskey have reached an agreement.

Comiskey will not say whether Duffy or Jones will be selected though he does not deny that he expects to appoint a new manager.

At the present rate the excavations at Pompeii will not be completed until the year 1970.

500,000 ACRES

Right in the heart of Wisconsin this giant tract of half a million acres—almost one thousand square miles, and nearly as large as Rhode Island—is now thrown open to farmers at fortune-building prices.

Back of this land is the story of the lumbermen. They held the land intact until the timber was cut, and now it is hurled on the market for quick sale.

Increase in Values

Land in this region, with the same soil and climate, is now selling for $100 to $150 an acre. But this vast tract is offered at only $6 to $20 an acre, with one-third down and ten years to pay the balance.

Located in the midst of dense population, with great markets in every direction these prices cannot long remain so low. Those who buy now will reap fortunes, as did the pioneers in early days.

$350 From Four Cows

Wisconsin is supreme in dairy products. The rich, golden butter and thick cream from here command a premium in every market.

Four cows usually yield $200 a year in butter and $150 in beef. Clover and timothy grow so abundant as to bring $10 an acre in the meadow.

Write for our booklet giving all the facts about the soil, climate, roads, schools, churches, telephones and price of crops. This book is yours free—please write for it at once.

football players in Wisconsin this season, is Martin Johnson, a tackle on the state school for deaf football eleven, in this city. Johnson's work has been a large factor in the championship course of the mutes' eleven.

Johnson is a new boy of the "old school." He was born in Montana and has never been able to hear a sound. After spending his early years on one of the most primitive ranches in Montana, he attended a school for the deaf.

Recently his parents removed to Sparta, Wis., and he is now permitted to attend the state school here, which is free to all residents of the state.

After his education is completed, he intends to return to ranch life. His fierce play at tackle has struck terror among opponents during the present season, and Johnson acknowledges this with the quiet smile of a cowboy deaf mute.

Three other students of the state school this year are from Sparta. They have taken instructions in other schools previously. They are completing an extended course. Their names are Mabel Millard, Nona Cass and Ralph Doane.

MOLL REINSTATED AT FACULTY MEETING

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 19.—There is rejoicing in the camp of the Badger football team over the reinstatement of "Kekkie" Moll, star quarterback who was indefinitely suspended a week ago for participation in a hazing escapade. He was reinstated by the faculty at a special meeting to consider the case. A condition is tied to the reinstatement to the effect that the student grievance committee adopt a resolution declaring against brutal hazing hereafter and providing proper penalty therefor.

Moll rejoined the squad today resuming his old place at quarter. His appearance is expected to put new vitality into the team's work.

The reinstatement of Moll is the result of a general protest against hasty action by the faculty discipline committee is suspending a student without a thorough hearing of the facts in the case.

Clemens who is president of the society will not be presented to the society until its annual meeting in November. TRY THIS FOR COLDS

Mix half ounce of Concentrated pine compound with two ounces of glycerine and a half pint of good whiskey; shake it well each time and use in doses of a teaspoonful to a tablespoonful every four hours.

These ingredients can be obtained from any good druggist.

This is said to be the quickest cough and cold cure known to science. The Concentrated pine is a special pine product and comes only in half ounce bottles, each enclosed in an air tight case, but be sure it is labeled "Concentrated."

"BOB'S" ADDRESS WELL RECEIVED

Wisconsin Senator at Minneapolis Proves His Hold on Sympathies of People; Talks to Students

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 19.—Senator La Follette's recent address before a St. Paul audience proved one thing, if nothing else, and that is the fact that Wisconsin's senior senator still possesses the remarkable hold on the sympathies of the people that was so well manifested during his earlier struggles for better government in Wisconsin, before he changed his scene of warfare to national councils. William Kittle, secretary of the state board of normal regents, heard the address and was surprised and pleased at the spirit with which the senator was received.

Senator Moses C. Clapp, like La Follette, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin law school, presided at the meeting and introduced Mr. La Follette. Senator Clapp stated in substance that no man in public life had made a more thorough study of representative government and real democracy than Senator La Follette, and that today the senior senator from Wisconsin is the most potent force in the national republic for good government.

Frank Nye and Mr. Lindberg, members of congress, had seats on the platform. In the large audience were a hundred students of the university of Minnesota. The attendance was noticeably made up of men interested in public affairs. When Senator La Follette appeared on the platform the applause was prolonged and spirited, indicating, many said, a decided prejudice against

No Rest Day or Night

"I would lay awake for hours without any apparent cause, or dream terrible dreams which would bring on extreme spells of nervousness. After taking Dr. Miles' Nervine and Tonic for awhile I could sleep well, and the nervous spells have left me." MISS ALMA HUG, R. R. No. 4, Canal Dover, Ohio.

Without sleep the nervous system soon becomes a wreck, and the healthful activity of all the organs obstructed. Restful, body-building sleep accompanies the use of Dr. Miles' Nervine because it soothes the irritable nerves, and restores nervous energy. When taken a few days according to directions, the most restless sufferer will find sleep natural and healthful. Get a bottle from your druggist. Take it all according to directions, and if it does not benefit he will return your money.

Orrine Cured Him of DRUNKENNESS

Her Husband Now Spends His Evenings at Home.

She bought Orrine from a druggist in her home town—she bought it after reading the Orrine Free Booklet. In the Booklet she read of the wonderful cures of drunkenness which were accomplished by the aid of Orrine. On page ten of the Booklet she read the liberal guarantee to refund all money paid for Orrine if it failed to effect a cure. After reading the Booklet she became convinced that Orrine was a remedy of unusual merit. She decided to purchase it and cure her husband of drunkenness. Orrine cured him. Now she is a happy wife in a happy home. Orrine helped to purchase the home. Read the following letter from Walter K. Schmidt, Co., 84 Canal St., Grand Rapids, Mich.

"For a number of years we have been agents for Orrine. During that time we have had occasion to be convinced, beyond a doubt, that Orrine is a reputable remedy, worthy of recommendation. One of the many cases coming to our attention, a mechanic earning $22.50 per week, who had not taken a full pay envelope home for over five years, was induced to try Orrine, a complete cure being the result. The man became worth more to his firm, receiving an advance in pay, and has purchased a home. The house stands there showing the merits of Orrine. We can not help but feel that we were most fortunate when we secured the agency for this reliable liquor cure."

Orrine is prepared in two forms. No. 1, a powder, absolutely tasteless and odorless, given secretly in food or drink. Orrine No. 2, in pill form, is for those who wish to cure themselves. Orrine costs only $1 a box. The guarantee is in each box. Write for Free Orrine Booklet (mailed in plain sealed envelope) to Orrine Co., 573 Orrine Building, Washington, D. C. Orrine is for sale in this city by O. T. Erhart, 431 Main St.

He knows Orrine is a reliable and efficacious remedy for drunkenness, and he will not offer you a substitute.

MINNESOTA AND THE NORTHWEST

BRIDEGROOM 76; BRIDE ONLY 66

SHERBURN, Minn., Oct. 19.—A romance, of thirty years' standing, resulted in the marriage here of Mrs. Henrietta Dunn of Syracuse, N. Y., to Rev. M. L. Tibbets, pastor of the United Brethren church at Whittier, Cal. The bridegroom is 76, and the bride ten years his junior.

ARBOGAST WOMAN WEEPS AT TRIAL

ST. PAUL, Oct. 19.—Mrs. Mina Arbogast was in District Court No. 1 today, charged with the murder of her husband, Louis Arbogast, who was beaten to death with an ax, in his bed, at their home, on the morning of May 13. Her eldest daughter, Louise Arbogast, is out on $20,000 bail, on the same charge.

Today and perhaps tomorrow, will be taken up with the selection of jurors, and the trial probably will be finished this week. About thirty witnesses have been summoned.

She wept as she walked from the county jail to the court house. She sobbed continually as she sat in the court room waiting for the proceedings to begin, and when after an hour mort was adjourned until 2 o'clock this afternoon because of the delay in reporting names for the October jury, she went back to jail with her escort, leaving by a side entrance and bowing her head, with her handkerchief to her face, to escape the curiosity of the crowd gathered there.

Mr. F. G. Fritz, Oneonta, N. Y., writes: "My little girl was greatly benefited by taking Foley's Orino Laxative, and I think it is the best remedy for constipation and liver trouble." Foley's Orino Laxative is mild, pleasant and effective, and cures habitual constipation. O. T. Erhart.

YEGGMEN RUN FROM CLERK'S SHOTS

HAMEL, Minn., Oct. 19.—Only bullets from a rifle in the hands of J. J. Friesen, clerk in the general store of A. D. Pouliot, kept a gang of men from blowing the safe which contained nearly $200 of Mr. Pouliot's and the government's money. Mr. Pouliot is postmaster and the postoffice is in the rear of his store.

It was a little after 2 a. m. when Friesen, who sleeps in a room in the rear of the store was awakened. He threw open the door of his room and fired without warning.

"Come on boys, the game is up!" shouted one of the robbers. "All fled through the front door."

Every woman who has a good husband imagines that his goodness is due to her influence.

FAVILLE ON THE WORLD'S RELIGION

"Given the law of natural selection as a universal principle," as Herbert Spencer taught, "what will that religion be?"

This question formed the basis of some forceful arguments presented by the Rev. Henry Faville in his sermon on Sunday morning from the pulpit of the Congregational church.

"The scientist believes that one law of progress is the survival of the fittest. Socially, morally, intellectually and spiritually, Christianity answers to this. It founder has something which no other religious leader has had. He made larger claims for himself and has made good his claims. His followers have often failed to understand or to follow him. Much which has borne the name of Christianity has been false to it. But the strength already shown in its line of progress means that on the principle of survival of the fittest has been tested."

Herbert Spencer thinks that men will come to see that work is the best possible thing for them and that they will be as eager for their work as they now are for their wages. Christianity need have no fear of such a proposition.

The sociologist finds that Christianity has been back of most of the humane progress. Imperfectly as it is applied, yet more of the humanitarian of our age have been either implanted, stimulated or supported by Christianity. Some of these are regained for the personality of the poorest and weakest; respect for woman; duty of each member of the fortunate classes towards the unfortunate; humanity to the child, the prisoner, the stranger, the needy and the animal;

MRS. THOS. KNEIFL DIES OF TUMOR

Mrs. Thomas Kneifl of 1626 Pine street, an old resident of this city, died at her home this morning after an illness of about six months with tumor of the stomach. She was 74 years of age. Surviving are her husband and six children, Mrs. Anton Miller, Mrs. John Soller, Mrs. Wm. Delphinich, Misses Agatha and Catherine Kneifl and Joseph Kneifl, all of this city.

The funeral will be held Thursday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Joseph's cathedral and interment will be made in the Catholic cemetery.

If angels are half as pice as girls who are just entering womanhood we'll have no kick coming.

The part of the average man's life that isn't spent getting into trouble is spent trying to get out.

How to Make Better Cough Syrup Than You Can Buy

A full pint of cough syrup—enough to last a family a long time—can be made by the recipe given below in five minutes, for only 54 cents. Simple as it is, there is nothing better at any price. It usually stops a deep-seated cough in twenty-four hours, and is a splendid household remedy for whooping cough, colds, hoarseness, bronchitis, etc.

Take a pint of granulated sugar, add 1-2 pint warm water and stir about 2 minutes. Put 2-3 oz. Pinex in a pint bottle and fill up with syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. It keeps perfectly and the taste is pleasing.

The chemical elements of pinex which are very healing to membranes, are obtained in high proportion in Pinex, the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway White Pine Extract. None of the weaker pine preparations will work with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex or can easily get it for you.

Strained honey can be used instead of the syrup, and makes a very fine honey and pine tar cough syrup.

PROFIT BY OTHERS' EXPERIENCE

Gray Hair Restored

My hair was getting quite gray and falling out rapidly and I was troubled with a terrible itching of the scalp. My head was full of dandruff, which fell upon my clothes and kept me continually brushing it off. While on a visit to Rochester I heard of your Sage and Sulphur for the hair. I got a bottle and used it. A few applications relieved the itching, my hair stopped falling out and gradually came back to its natural color. It is now a nice dark brown color, soft, glossy and pliable. Several of my friends want to use it, and I want to know what you will charge me for six bottles of it.

MISS E. A. ROSS,
Sharon, Mercer Co., Pa.

Grew Hair on a Bald Head

For two or three years my hair had been falling out and getting quite thin until the top of my head was entirely bald. About four months ago I commenced using Sage and Sulphur. The first bottle seemed to do some good and I kept using it regularly until now I have used four bottles. The whole top of my head is fairly covered and keeps coming in thicker. I shall keep on using it a while longer, as I notice a constant improvement.

FOREIGN MARKETS

New York Stocks
NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The stock market opened today with an indifferent tone but prices inclined to weakness. After the first fifteen minutes there were fractional declines in leading railroad issues and the industrials were disposed to follow this lead.

11 a. m.—Heavy selling by the larger room traders was the feature of the first hour. Large blocks of offered kept prices down but the rallying tone was evident and the general list was only fractionally below yesterday's close. New York Central moved up one point, Amalgamated Copper, St. Paul and Union Pacific all rallied.

Government bonds unchanged; others steady.

Noon.—Trading in the latter part of the forenoon was without much importance, the professional element appearing to be out of the market for the time. With pressure from this source ended, the market took on a steadier tone with some fractional advances in prices.

Noon—Some selling during the morning depressed wheat prices fractionally. In sympathy with wheat, corn and oats eased off 1-8 all around. Close—December wheat after dropping to 103 7-8, recovered only a fraction and closed 1-2 cents below the opening. May closed a cent off and July was down 5-8 cent. Corn ended from 5-8 to 7-8 cent lower. Oats ended from quarter to half lower.

M'KINLEY OFFERS TO DO "PENANCE"

To Please Unfriendly Reporters Land Grafters will "Suffer Hardships" 30 Days

Horace G. McKinley, land grafter, who last Tuesday began serving out the 30 days necessary in lieu of the $7,500 fine imposed with his two year term, sends a communication to the Portland, Ore. News volunteering some ironical remarks and offers to do penance if the reporters will thereafter let him alone.

He writes: "I would like to have you publish the fact that should I have desired to pay the fine of $7,500 imposed upon me by Judge Wolverton at the time of sentence, I could have been a free man this morning, October 7, at 10 o'clock, as the two years expired then. I concluded, however, not to pay the amount but instead will serve the extra 30 days required by law in lieu thereof, and will endeavor to do so in a manner that, I hope, will satisfy and please the reporters on the Oregonian, Telegram and Journal, who seem to take such an interest in my case, as also the new county grand jury, should they see fit to investigate the matter, as the last one did.

"From 8 to 9 o'clock a. m., while taking my 'daily promenade' up and down the corridors of the jail, I will wear the 'Oregon boot,' and while on a 'pleasure stroll' in the afternoon (4 to 5 o'clock, same place) I will buckle on the ball and chain. The balance of the day I will ask to be confined in one of the steel cages in the main corridor, and in full view of the reporters as they pass in and out. I will request the jailors to lock me in the dungeon during the night, without blankets.

"I will eat (in the cage) one meal every other day, and tap myself when I want a drink, as I am 'anaemically inclined,' according to the Oregonian. The steam baths will be cut entirely—the roasts handed to me by the papers mentioned will do the work as well.

"I will send Mrs. McKinley to the mountains—perhaps '11-7.' "I will relinquish the title 'Land Fraud King.' It never was mine anyway, but rightfully belonged to Puter.

"I never attained a higher rank than first lieutenant, or I might say, at times, the King's Knave. "I would like to have it known that I will undergo any hardship or punishment, during the next 30 days in order to please a few of my pencil-pushing friends, provided they will consider me 'dead and buried' at the end of that time."

"H. G. M'KINLEY."

WISCONSIN NEWS

JAMES HOWARD ALLOWED FREEDOM

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 19.—Upon the recommendation of the district attorney and the chief of police, James Howard was yesterday released from custody when he signed his own bond for $1,000.

Howard turned state's evidence some time after he had been arrested on the charge of robbing a messenger in the lobby of the First National bank.

"In cases of this kind," said Judge Brazee, "where a man has turned state's evidence and rendered to the police such valuable service it is not unusual to permit him to go."

BOTH BOYS SAVED

Louis Boon, a leading merchant of Norway, Mich., writes: "Three bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar absolutely cured my boy of a severe cough, and a neighbor's boy, who was so ill with a cold that the doctors gave him up, was cured by taking Foley's Honey and Tar." Nothing else is as safe and certain in results.

CORPSE AT WHEEL; AUTO HITS A TREE

EAST TROY, Wis., Oct. 19.—Death came to James E. Reynolds as he was driving an automobile this morning. In the car with him were Mrs. George Meadows and two younger children.

How long the driver had been dead they do not know, but the occupants were suddenly apprised that something was wrong when the machine went careening across a ditch and off the road, striking a tree with sufficient force to hurl the occupants from the auto.

The children discovered that Reynolds had been dead for some little time before the car hit the tree. Death resulted from heart trouble.

HOLD UP TROLLEY; SHOOT POLICE

ASHLAND, Wis., Oct. 19.—An unknown man held up a street car last night at 8 o'clock, marched two men into the woods and relieved them of watches and money. Then he marched them to a road house in the woods, held up the inmates, and got $80.

He seized a horse and buggy and escaped, but smashed the buggy against a stump, and leaving the rig he walked to Odanah.

PASTORS TABOO SUNDAY FUNERALS

At the meeting of the Pastors' union yesterday morning a resolution was passed which practically asks residents of the city and undertakers where it is possible to refrain from holding funerals on Sunday.

The principal discussion was on the subject, "The Relation of the Y. M. C. A. to the Local Churches." Secretary Gran and Miss Dinsdale of the Y. M. C. A. led the discussion. A committee consisting of Secretary Gran, secretary Dinsdale, J. E. Ayscue, Henry Faville, A. L. Shuts and two other pastors who are still to be appointed was delegated to devise means for mutual assistance between the churches and the two associations.

A resolution of condolence was tendered to Rev. Shute, who lost his mother a few days ago, by death.

Many people seem to make a specialty of doing the wrong thing at the right time.

WHY? Why do you put off any longer entering the W. B. U., when you know it is what you ought to do? You have seen these photos of young men and women by the hundred who are now employed, happy and successful. Their salaries are being increased; they are getting AHEAD. Are you? Why cannot we fill three positions this morning: one with the La Crosse Gas & Electric company, and two with the biggest milling company in the world? Because every W. B. U. graduate is EMPLOYED. Not only every graduate but more than ONE HUNDRED UNDERGRADUATES.

We assist every worthy student, graduate or not.

Why did the Michel Prewing company add two new W. B. U. graduates to its office force, John Rau and Joseph Jirza? Ask them: Ask any business man why he prefers W. B. U. graduates in his office.

Don't dilly dally. Determine to do something.

Two Indian policemen, Joe Bigboy and John Blackbird, attempted to arrest him, when the fugitive fired five shots with an automatic revolver and escaped. Bigboy was shot through the foot and Blackbird was shot through the body, a fatal wound.

A posse has been sent out.

Blackbird will probably die before night. The holdup man was probably an Italian.

If people with symptoms of kidney or bladder trouble could realize their danger they would without loss of time commence taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. This great remedy stops the pain and the irregularities strengthens and builds up these organs and there is no danger of Bright's disease or other serious disorder. Do not disregard the early symptoms. O. T. Erhart.

MEN ARE FINED FOR USING CUSS WORDS

DURAND, Wis., Oct. 19.—The city council recently passed an ordinance making it a misdemeanor to swear. The judge of the city court is a radical "anti-cuss" agitator, and is punishing the offenders to the limit.

On the first day the law was in effect three residents used profanity and were fined $25. The trio swore some more, then, but did it on the quiet. The court fined the parents of a boy who swore because they had not properly educated the youngster.

BICYCLE RECOVERED IN JUST AN HOUR

After being in possession of Miss Sanford's bicycle for about half an hour, Louis Hamilton, the boy, who had stolen it from the public library was caught by Prof. A. H. Sanford, a teacher at the local normal school, Saturday night. The professor and his daughter were walking home when they discovered the boy riding the wheel. His case is under consideration.

LIBRARY ASKS $2,000 ADDITIONAL

An appropriation of $6,000 will be asked of the common council at its next meeting by the trustees of the La Crosse Public Library association.

Free Liver Remedy

It is well to stop a physical ailment at the first signs of its approach, and that is especially true of liver trouble, which can eventually give rise to so many serious complications. Many have liver trouble and imagine it is indigestion, and hence take the wrong remedy.

When the liver does not store up sufficient gastric juices it becomes sluggish, and in this way disturbs the stomach and bowels, with which it is supposed to work in harmony. Then comes the sallow complexion, the pimply face, the dull pain in the forehead, the thinning of the blood, etc. A very quick and sensible way to stop the trouble as well as to cure it is by the use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which contains ingredients especially intended to promote the activity of the liver.

Among the many thousands who have written the doctor about the results achieved with his remedy, and who are glad to make the facts public so that others can help themselves, are Mr. J. A. Kennedy, St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. S. A. La Rue of Smith's Grove, Ky., and many others.

These, like thousands of others, started the use of Syrup Pepsin with a sample. If you will send your name and address you can also obtain a free trial bottle. This will prove to you that liver trouble is promptly cured by this remedy or money will be refunded. Having tried it you can then buy it in the regular way of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, and the latter is sufficient for an entire family.

This remedy is a vast improvement over cathartic tablets and salts, which only do good for the time being. Syrup Pepsin is permanent in its results. It is pleasant to take and does not gripe. It is especially good for all those who cannot stand a violent purgative.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R. 524 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

"I have suffered with piles for thirty six years. One year ago last April I began taking Cascarets for constipation. In the course of a week I noticed the piles began to disappear and at the end of six weeks they did not trouble me at all. Cascarets have done wonders for me. I am entirely cured and feel like a new man." George Kryder, Napoleon, O.
